physician. Student academic performance is reviewed upon completion of each semester for years one and two and at the end of each academic year. The P&M Committee reviews the academic records of students with any earned course grades below seventy (70) percent and the course performance of students previously placed on academic warning/probation. At the conclusion of the fall term for years one (1) and two (2), the P&M Committee may recommend one of the following courses of action: continuation into spring semester courses with his/her record reviewed again at
